BIGGER AND BETTER ONE TAKEN ITS PLACE

This stock had to be reduced to certain figures and certain undesirable goods disposed of before we would take it, which we anticipated would be July 2nd, but the great sale has brought around these conditions, and we took possession Monday and shall continue the sale with deeper cuts in prices. It is so late in the season it would be folly to buy goods at regular prices for regular business. To make things interesting our buyer has been to the market and picked up such things as we could buy at a liberal discount and shall give our customers the benefit of it, and we quote the following prices. Come today if possible.

We wish to apologize for starting in business with a sale. But conditions are peculiar. We have a large quantity of the Smith Co. stock that we bought at a very low price and we are determined to get rid of it at any price.

Some of the clothing is up to date and all right; some is very crummy. The latter kind we are simply going to get rid of, even if we have to give it away.
